

Single Equalities Policy

Our Vision To create a fair and just setting/centre community, that promotes social inclusion, community cohesion and equality, that respects diversity and which challenges and acts upon discrimination and inequality including bullying.

Little Elms Preschool provides education for all, acknowledging that the society within which we live is enriched by diversity.

Little Elms Preschool strives to ensure that the culture and ethos of the whole centre reflects the diversity of ALL members of the community, where everyone is equally valued and treats one another with respect and fairness. Children and their families are provided with the opportunity to experience, understand and celebrate diversity.

Little Elms will not tolerate harassment of any kind. We are committed to combating ALL forms of discrimination and are pro-active in widening horizons.

Little Elms Preschool recognises that monitoring and evaluation of equality is essential to ensure nobody is being disadvantaged, and that monitoring leads to action planning.

Little Elms Preschool Centre intends that its workforce reflects Suffolk's' diversity at all levels of the organisation. We aim to be an inclusive employer that positively values the contribution of all employees. Through both our employment policies and strategies, we aim to achieve equality for all sections of the workforce and the community we serve.

Little Elms Preschool will work towards eliminating all discrimination on the grounds of race, gender, gender reassignment, disability, sexuality (including sexual orientation), age, religion or belief. We believe that all children, families, employees and other service users should be treated with dignity and respect at all times and we will not tolerate bullying, harassment or victimisation of any groups or individuals.

Little Elms Preschool will be an equality champion and community leader in

- Promoting equality, for example by assessing the impact of our policies on different groups
- Challenging and eradicating discrimination, for example by acting quickly to deal with all bullying, including that which is aimed at groups as well as individuals such as racist bullying
- Promoting community cohesion
- Giving a high profile to rights and responsibilities by promoting human rights, justice and fairness throughout the curriculum and wider community
- Developing an Equality, Diversity and Cohesion Strategy that includes all equality strands and links targets and actions with our Improvement and Development Plans
- Developing and supporting a workforce that seeks to reflect at all levels the resident community of Suffolk
- Reviewing and auditing all our equality, diversity and cohesion activities

Our Principles

- To promote equality, diversity and cohesion within the local community. We believe that our organisation has to reflect all the communities and people it serves.
- Challenge discrimination on the grounds of gender, race, age, disability, sexuality (including sexual orientation), religion or belief.
- Our vision for equality and diversity goes beyond establishing processes to achieve change. We will monitor progress made towards meeting objectives to:
 - o take adequate steps to prevent discrimination
 - o take decisive action when discrimination occurs
 - o take steps to promote equality, diversity and cohesion
- All our staff will consistently challenge all put-downs, harassment, name-calling, bullying, threatening or hurtful behaviour (physical and psychological) that violates a group or individual and leads to marginalisation, exclusion, and feelings of powerlessness and worthlessness because of colour, culture, ethnicity, faith, religion, belief, national origin, national status, disability or impairment, perception of sexuality including sexual orientation, gender, marital status, socio-economic background, age, responsibility for dependants and trade union membership.
- We accept the findings of the Stephen Lawrence Enquiry Report, with particular respect to the Macpherson definition of 'institutional racism', which is 'The collective failure of an organisation to provide an appropriate and professional service to people because of their colour, culture, or ethnic origin. It can be seen or detected in processes, attitudes and behaviour which amount to discrimination through unwitting prejudice, ignorance, thoughtlessness, and racist stereotyping which disadvantage minority ethnic people.'
- We recognise that the Macpherson definition of 'institutional discrimination' in relation to race can be equally applied to other equality strands.
- We acknowledge The Stephen Lawrence Enquiry definition of a racist incident is "any incident which is perceived to be racist by the victim or any other person".
- We also recognise that all children may experience harassment and bullying and in tackling these issues in the pre-school we use the same definition that such an incident is perceived to be harassment or bullying by the victim or another person, until proven otherwise.
- We will strive to be a 'listening setting'. We listen to all our pre-school community members including children, parents, staff, visitors, wider community members. We take seriously all experiences of bullying and hurtful behaviour resulting from bullying such as racism. We invite all our children in particular to talk to us about bullying, where it happens, who is doing it, and what it involves.
- We are committed to being a learning organisation which recognises the contribution of all children, staff, parents and other partners and which is supportive, fair, just and free from discrimination.
- We will continue to develop preventative measures to deal with discrimination including promoting human rights and equality for all, adult courses/events and in particular focusing on the 'rights of the child', the 'right to education' and the right to be safe.
- Our SEND policy demonstrates our commitments to pupil participation, parent participation, resource allocation and access to learning and events. The outcomes of how these aspects are reflected in our school practice and the steps we need to take to develop them link directly to the disability dimensions of our Single Equalities

- Partnership with parents and the wider community are essential to promote equality, diversity and community cohesion.
- Encourage diversity and eliminate unfair treatment and discrimination through a full range of human resource policies and procedures in particular in the areas of recruitment, training and development and promotion.
- Monitor staff in post, all applicants, short listed candidates and candidates appointed. ▪ Recognise that staff have rights as employees to work in a supportive, safe and harassment free environment and that staff have individual and collective responsibility to value and respect each other's contributions.
- Promote a welcoming environment where standards of conduct are of the highest level and to ensure that no one is harassed, bullied or victimized.
- Ensure that in planning, delivering and monitoring strategies and policies, equality and diversity issues are considered at the outset of that work and that we will consult with children, parents, staff, partners where appropriate and the wider community.

STATEMENT

Our Single Equalities aims to ensure that no child receives less favourable treatment by virtue of one's race, gender, religious beliefs, ethnic origin, disability, age or sexuality. In taking a Single Equalities approach we recognise that people may often share more than one aspect of their identity in relation to race, disability, gender, religion or belief. We believe that every member of our setting community should feel safe and secure, valued and of equal worth.

- We value diversity by promoting equality of access and equality of opportunity, treating everyone as an individual and valuing the diversity and creativity that each person brings to our setting.

RESPONSIBILITY/MONITORING AND REVIEW

We know that we are all responsible for carrying out our Single Equalities. The senior management team have responsibility for sharing updates in legislation with staff, co-ordinating activities relating to equality and evaluating impact, ensuring all are aware of their responsibilities and providing relevant training and support and taking appropriate action in response to any prejudice incidents. All employees, trainees and volunteers are made aware of the policy and their responsibility in following it.

Promoting equality: curriculum

The curriculum offered, through our learning and teaching, learning environment, resources and equipment, and the language practitioners model we encourage children and families to develop positive attitudes about themselves as well as to people who are different from themselves. It encourages children to empathise with others and to begin to develop the skills of critical thinking.

We do this by:

- Ensuring that children have equality of access to learning
- Recognising the different learning styles, making appropriate provision within the curriculum to ensure each child receives the widest possible opportunity to develop their skills and abilities
- Positively reflecting the widest possible range of communities in the choice of resources

- Avoiding stereotypes or derogatory images in the selection of books or other visual materials
- Introducing a wide range of festivals and celebrations

- Ensuring that the curriculum offered is inclusive of children with special educational needs and children with disabilities
